Brad Taylor and Steve Schlatter addressed the objective of how to strengthen and further define/develop local partnerships with area businesses and residents. After discussion, it was recommended for the teachers in the CTE programs to encourage students to do items such as job shadows, entertain asking businesses to come to classes, use technologies such as skype to bring 'experts' into the classrooms, etc.

Brad Taylor then addressed the results of the 'advisory survey' on job seeking – job retaining skills that was done this late spring/early summer.

Brad Taylor showed a video clip in regards to the need of CTE courses within the curriculum.
