The Roland-Story Career and Technical Education Advisory Council meeting was called to order at 5:00 PM on May 14, 2014 by advisory vice-chair Kurt Erickson. There were 12 members present: Rick Schreier, banking and finance; Kurt Erickson, Industry; Justin Hanson, farming; Erin Wilgenbusch, parent and education; Mike Retallick, school board; Fran Christian, education and farming; Nick Hermanson, farming; Steve Schlatter, HS Principal; Cheryl Larson, FCS instructor; Kathy Hovick, Business Education instructor; Paul Higginbottom, Industrial Technology instructor and Brad Taylor, Agriculture instructor.

Rick Schreier moved and Erin Wilgenbusch seconded that we approve the agenda. Motion passed.

Nick Hermanson moved and Rick Schreier seconded that we approve the minutes of the fall 2014 meeting. Motion passed.

CTE instructors reported on their major accomplishments of the year. FCS was an increase in males in the program; Business was providing visits to area businesses for Job Life; Industrial Tech was in curriculum development and Agriculture was in the infusion of STEM into the curriculum.

Steve Schlatter reported on the successful partnerships that were developed with local businesses in which all Juniors were able to visit with 7 area businesses. He also indicated that all juniors took the National Career Readiness Assessment as a test.

Cheryl Larson reported on the Perkins-CTE competitions that she observed at the Marshalltown Community College last month. FCS, Industrial Tech, Business and Ag have a potential to provide skills assessment through a competition.

There being no further business, it was moved by Mike Retallick and seconded by Paul Higginbottom to adjourn the meeting. Motion passed. Meeting was adjourned at 5:32 pm.

Next meeting: Wednesday, September 10, 2014 – Roland-Story High School Ag Ed room
